

CCNY's MFA in Creative Writing
Reading Series Fall 2023

A READING & CONVERSATION WITH RAHNA REIKO RIZZUTO

Guest Professor, Novelist and Memoirist

MONDAY
OCTOBER 16, 2023
5:00-7:00 PM
Rifkind Center
NAC 6/316, CCNY

Rahna Reiko Rizzuto's third novel is Shadow Child, a mystery set in Hawaii, New York and Japan. Her other works include her memoir, Hiroshima in the Morning, which moves from "Ground Zero" to the 9/11 terrorist attacks, and her first novel, Why She Left Us, about the Japanese American incarceration camps. Her awards include the American Book Award, the National Book Critics Circle Finalist, Asian American Literary Award Finalist, among others. Her articles on motherhood, Hiroshima, the Japanese incarceration camps and radiation poisoning have been published globally.

This event will be followed by a Meet and Greet for prospective MFA students with MFA director, Professor Michelle Valladares.

Sponsored by the Estate of Kenneth Kowald Fund for Advancing American Literature and the Rifkind Center.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

THE RIFKIND CENTER
FOR THE HUMANITIES AND THE ARTS AT THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

