

CCNY's MFA in Creative Writing Presents
CHAI & CHAT READING SERIES
CARLOS AGUASACO

Poet, Professor & Director of the Americas Poetry Festival

In conversation with
Prof. Michelle Valladares

Tues. Nov. 14, 2023

5:00–7:00 PM

Rifkind Center NAC 6/316
City College of New York

Carlos Aguasaco is one of the most influential voices of the new Hispanic poetry in the United States. He is Professor of Latin American cultural studies and Director of the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies at CCNY, CUNY. He is the recipient of the 2021 Juan Felipe Herrera Award for the best bilingual book of poetry. The Academy of American Poets awarded him the 2021 Ambroggio Prize, for his book Cardinal in My Window with a Mask on Its Beak translated by Jennifer Rathbun (Arizona University Press, 2022).

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Sponsored by the Estate of the Kenneth Kowald
Fund for Advancing American Literature

THE RIFKIND CENTER
FOR THE HUMANITIES AND THE ARTS AT THE CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

